THAT GENTLEMEN'S RACE.

Social and cigarette circles at Ingleside still sizzle with the excitement awakened by Mr. W. S. Hobart's pursuit of a shade. In racetrack parlance a shade means an unfair advantage, and the rest of the gentlemen jockeys insist that Mr. Hobart had a shade the better of them in the last race. Being unable to get down to weight, the millionaire, by virtue of his pull with the association, is alleged to have raised the limit, changed the conditions, chartered the best horse at the track and carried off the silver cup.

He left the trophy on the grounds and departed hurriedly to escape the hisses of the people in the grandstand, but the cup was carried away during the night by a trusted valet, who chaperoned it to San Mateo, where Mr. Hobart spent yesterday admiring the reward of his prowess on the turf.

Mr. Skinner and Mr. Forsland, both of whom refused to ride because of Mr. Hobart's peculiar gentleman jockey methods, discourse sadly of the race and its outcome. Mr. Forsland, who cuts his whiskers to get down to weight, says that Mr. Hobart's pull as a director of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club, backed by unlimited money, enabled him to obtain a "shade" over the other contestants.

It is true that Mr. Skinner had an option on Dr. Sheppard, but he could not guarantee the owner against damage nor fill his depleted purse. Had Mr. Hobart broken the back of Dr. Sheppard or caused his kidneys to shift, Mr. Foster would have been reimbursed for the loss of the beast. Again, he was able to pay his horse rent.

In speaking of these matters, Mr. Skinner expressed deep regret. He was reluctant to discuss the affair at all, but his feelings compelled him to remark that Mr. Hobart had acted in an unsportsmanlike manner.

It came out yesterday that a Mr. Gamage, said to be a bad debt collector, who rode in the gentlemen's race, has a tale to unfold. The story goes that Mr. Gamage, having mingled in good society on the turf, related to a downtown bartender that Mr. Hobart engaged him—the bad debt collector—to take a mount to fill out the field and make the event more imposing. With Mr. Skinner and Mr. Forsland out of it, the field would have looked rather skimpy, despite Mr. Hobart's generous beam. While not a crackjacker rider, Mr. Gamage was competent to occupy the vacant space in a gentleman jockey's saddle and wear some kind of colors.

The gentlemen jockey races this year were a series continued from last season, and to capture the trophy a gentleman jockey had to win three times. One of the first conditions was that the aged horses should each carry 160 pounds. This did not fit Mr. Hobart, who carried at least ten pounds more for wealth; so he requested that the scale be raised ten pounds. Originally all the horses were entered by their owners and the mounts settled by lot; but the millionaire didn't like this arrangement. He suggested that each rider procure his own mount, which was done, and Mr. Hobart on Mistral II. won easily.

In the next event they drew lots for mounts and Mr. Hobart was wiped out, Mr. Skinner winning on Collins. Even at 170 pounds Mr. Hobart was too heavy. Then the millionaire went into training with a professor of boxing to thump the surplus flesh off him.

Skinner and Hobart had each won two races, and the third was to decide the ownership of the silver cup. Again did the San Mateo man urge a change in the conditions, which would permit each jockey to furnish his own horse instead of trusting to chance. To that end he circulated a paper among the gentlemen jockeys. A number of them refused to sign and the scheme fell through, but Mr. Hobart was not to be balked. He got the directors of the Jockey Club to change the conditions of the race and set after his shade.

It seems that Mr. Skinner and Fred Foster, owner of Dr. Sheppard, are old acquaintances. Mr. Skinner says Foster promised him, voluntarily, that he should have the big horse whenever the opportunity arose. This understanding prevailed down to the time of making entries for the race of Thursday. All was serene until Fred Foster bethought him of his brother George, who is part owner of the gallant Dr. Sheppard. Fred left Mr. Skinner while he sought brother George, the closing of the entries having meanwhile been staid at Skinner's request.

There Skinner fell. Between the time of leaving good friend Skinner and meeting brother George, owner Foster ran into millionaire Hobart. When he returned it was to pour a tale of woe into the Skinner ear. Foster needed money. Hobart needed a horse. Skinner got an apology. Hobart got Dr. Sheppard, and Mr. Forsland said in a signed statement made yesterday: "It was nothing short of brigandage on Mr. Hobart's part."

But then Mr. Forsland afterward reconsidered his language. He said that he had been informed that brigandage meant robbing people on a "by-way." Therefore he requested that his screed read:

"It was nothing short of colossal impudence on Mr. Hobart's part."

Mr. Hobart says nothing. He has the cup.—San Francisco Examiner.

AMERICAN HORSES IN ENGLAND.

The latest English Racing Calendar received shows that American thoroughbreds are much more freely engaged in coming events on the British turf than was at first supposed. For the April Auction Stakes, at the Alexandra Park spring meeting, Mr. Dobell nominates a bay or brown filly by Tenny—Loveknot, and a bay or brown filly by Fresno—Naiad, both bred in the United States; and for the July Auction Plate, at a later meeting on the same track, the American-bred youngsters named are H. Frederick's br. f. by Pontiac—Tiara, by Alarm, and H. Milner's b. f. by Uncle Jess—Downshire Lass.

Entries for the Weston Stakes at the Bath and Somerset May meeting include Richard Croker's Hand Over and Dolbeara, and the same owner nominates Salina and Demonstration for the Rottingdean Plate at the Brighton August meeting. Other entries for the latter event include J. Shorey Curtis' ch. c. Tristano and b. f. Lady's Favour. C. F. Dwyer is doubly represented for the Epsom summer meeting, having nominated Peaches for the Caterham Plate and Sly Fox for the Epsom Cup. The same horses are engaged at the Gortwick spring meeting, Peaches being in the Mart Plate, while Sly Fox figures among the candidates for the Prince's Handicap of $5,000, at one mile and a half. Sly Fox is also booked for the Esher Stakes of the same value at Salisbury, and Peaches has still another engagement in the Great Kingston Stakes at the Eclipse meeting in July.

J. E. McDonald's once noted colt, Rensselaer, now a five-year-old, is entered for a long series of events, mostly welter handicaps. He has engagements at Lincoln Spring, Northampton and Pytchley Hunt, Nottingham, and Birmingham. The last named fixture, which is set for April 3 and 4, promises to have quite an American flavor. The entries for the Holiday Plate include Richard Croker's three-year-old Rosina W. and Sweet Chimes, while in the Water Orton Plate are the same owner's Bowling Green and Georgiana as well as McDonald's Rensselaer. The latter is also in the Newport Stakes.

Apparently Pierre Lorillard has not turned all his British turf interests over to Lord William Berezford, as he appears in the calendar as a heavy nominator for the rich Lingfield Park Stakes of about $15,000, to be run early in July. Lorillard has accepted with the four-year-old Elphin, and the three-year-olds Dominie II., Myakka and Sibola. Croker's Sweet Chimes is also left in. To cap the climax the following are eligible for the Derby, to be run at Epsom Downs on the last day of May:

August Belmont's Catapult II., b. c. by Magnetizer—Kate Allen; Richard Croker's Knickerbocker, br. c. by Dobbins—Flirt III., and Wantage Belle, b. f. by Loyalist—Wanda; Foxhall P. Keene's ch. c. by St. Leonards—Vandura; James R. Keene's ch. c. by Meddler—Onoma, and ch. c. by St. Leonards—Dart Maiden; H. Knapp's ch. c. by Knight of Ellerslie—Corunna, and Pierre Lorillard's Bromer, b. c. by Sensation—Equality, and Sardonis, ch. c. by Sir Modred—Sweetbriar.—New York Sun.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The following from a dispatch to the Cincinnati Enquirer from Chillicothe, O., is interesting if true: "Uncle Dan Harness has presented his peerless little mare Imp, to his daughter, Miss Virginia Harness, and that young lady will hereafter have the active management of the mare. Miss Harness is an enthusiastic admirer of fast horses, and has kept the records of all her father's horses for several years past, being of no little assistance to him in this way. She has the records and breeding of all his horses at her tongue's end, and is thoroughly informed on racing matters. She is a very attractive young lady, and a great favorite with the guests at her father's hospitable home. Imp's next season will be the most important she has yet made, and Miss Harness' many friends hope it will be as successful as her past ones."

Henry McDaniels, the well-known young Lexington trainer, will campaign a string on eastern tracks this season, and the lot will be headed by the speedy but erratic Box. There will also be four or five two-year-olds in the lot that have showed up pretty well so far. The horses are the property of W. Showalter, for whom Mr. McDaniels has been training for the past year. Yesterday Charley Penn of this city received a letter from Mr. McDaniels, in which he said that Box had been fired and turned out, and that he had rounded to very nicely. He expects that Box will prove to be very formidable in the eastern handicap division this year.—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

Myth has been barred from starting at Ingleside. As he had previously been cut off from the privilege of running at Oakland it appears that no more of his "startling reversals" will be displayed at San Francisco.

Cromwell set a new record for California yesterday when he defeated David Tenny at nine furlongs in 1:52. The record before was Salvador's 1:52 made at Oakland, December 24, 1897.

Jockey Jesse Everett has signed to ride for Charles T. Patterson during 1899 and will go east with the stable.

Piggott will ride for Burns & Waterhouse at St. Louis this season. Thorpe goes with the eastern division.

Jockey T. Powers has signed a contract to ride for August Belmont. It is reported to be for three years.

E. S. Gardner, Jr., has sold the filly Eight Bells to F. H. Hickok, of St. Louis.

MAY BE A GOULD STABLE.

According to Morning Telegraph there is some probability of the Goulds, or some of the Goulds forming a strong stable and engaging regularly in racing. It would certainly be a matter of great importance to the turf. The statement is as follows:

"Following the lead of Mr. Whitney, it is not improbable that the Gould family will get into the racing game.

"To those horsemen who have had an acquaintance with George Gould the announcement of an inclination to go on the turf is no surprise. George Gould has long had a hankering for just the kind of thing which Mr. Whitney is now doing. He is even more of a practical horseman than Whitney, and has a deeper personal interest in the steed as a companion and servant of mankind.

"Gould's stables at Lakewood and elsewhere contain some of the best cross-country horses about New York, and the owner spends much of his leisure with them. At cross-country riding he probably has no superior among the gentlemen riders hereabouts. So much of him is not seen in the papers, as his hunts are private affairs, but during the season he is as often in the saddle as weather and business will permit.

"Young Frank Gould has just come into his money, and he is looking also toward the turf as a pleasant means of relaxation. He is an enthusiastic rider. The brothers are constantly associated, and the recently expressed desire of the eldest of the Goulds for racing is probably prompted by the younger brother's earnest in the matter.

"While George Gould will make no statement of his intentions, he has been quietly talking with racing men recently with a view to the purchase of a ready-made stable. Should he enter the field, he will do so this season should he be able to find suitable material for the formation of a stable to his notion.

"The possibility of a number of men of wealth like Gould entering the game was suggested not long ago by Phil Dwyer. He was led to the remarks published in this paper by a reference to the limited but perfect racing organization which Mr. Whitney had arranged. Whitney is bound to have followers, and the game will creep steadily back to the plane of prosperity which it occupied several years ago.

"Just one objection to coming into the racing fold has been advanced by George Gould, and in his utterance he spoke for others of his kind. They are afraid of the press. Approached by members of the Jockey Club and invited to participation in turf affairs, Gould said frankly that while nothing would please him more, he was in actual fear of the injury which the press would do him.

"Inconsiderate of people as the press sometimes is, he didn't want to have his name printed around the country in connection with gambling affairs, and in the same sentences with the names of all the raffra of the turf. He did not want to have to make private apology to his friends for a public indulgence in a pastime. Mr. Gould is willing to confess that in its self-appointed guardianship of turf affairs the press has made ten dishonest men impossible while it has hurt the feelings of one honest man of good standing. Removing the prejudice against print, George Gould will become a turfman, and Frank Gould will be his racing partner."

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.

The American Sporting Manual of 1898 is on general sale. It is a record of the turf, billiards, pugilism, trotting, pacing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records
(by DAILY RACING FORM's staff), billiard figures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the fights of 1898, with comments (by George Siler), harness records to date and of the past (by John Hervey, the statistician of The Horse Review) and three handicap tables, with directions for their application and expert comment.
The Manual, in paper covers, sells at 30 cents and in soft morocco covers at 50 cents.

Winner—B. g. by Donald A.—Mollie Merrill.

Off at first break to a good start. It was a driving finish. Gath tiptoed his field but was out to the last ounce to stall off Sim W. The latter hung a bit in the final sixteenth. Prince Harry quit the last furlong. Hanlight is evidently an inconsistent performer. She was dull of speed today. So was Prince Harry. It was a smart race.

Gath, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Sim W., place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Prince Harry, show, 1 to 2.

10417 SECOND RACE—7-8 Mile. Purse $250. $35 to second; $15 to third. Entrance $10. 3-year-olds. Selling. 10 lbs. below the scale. Each to be entered to be sold for $400. Beaten non-winners at meeting allowed 5 lbs; if beaten four or more times allowed 10 lbs.

Winner—Blk. c. by Blazes—Sarah.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. The first two were driving hard. The first two fought it out through the stretch. Sir Blaze ran the best race and was best ridden. The riding told at the end. Blenheim finished strong. Charlo quit after a half. Tom Shannon closed a big gap from a bad beginning. Morning had a rough journey and tired in the stretch. The weight anchored Ned Wickes. Pell Mell II. sulks.

Scratched—Siddilla. 97.
Sir Blaze, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. The Dragon, place, 10 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Tom Shannon, show, 7 to 5. Ned Wickes, show, evens.

Winner—B. c. by Linden—Ella H.

Off at first break to a good start. The first two fought it out at the end. Babe Fields lost ground on the stretch turn and O'Connor outfinished Nutt. Clay Poynter finished strong. Flick waited too long with Admetus and took him into the soft going in the stretch. Double Dummy had plenty of speed, but lost in the m-x-up on the home turn. Basquil was used a lot and stopped at the end. Rockwood closed strong.

Scratched—Friar John. 101; Joe Shelby, 103; Gomez, 102; Red, 106.
Clay Poynter, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Babe Fields, place, 8 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Double Dummy, show, 4 to 5. Admetus, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

10419 FOURTH RACE—3-8 Mile. The Premier Stakes. $1,000 guaranteed. $200 to second; $100 to third. $5 to accompany the nomination; $45 additional to start. 2-year-olds. Allowances. 8 lbs. below the scale. Winners of a race at meeting to carry 5 lbs. extra.

Winner—Br. f. by Gallantry—Fanny Wilson.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. The first three were ridden out. Muey Chica smothered her field for speed, but was under a hard drive all the last furlong and out to the last ounce at the end. Jen was closing fast and got the place in the last stride. Alex was very green at the start but made up ground in the stretch and showed speed. Is a good kind of a colt. Gussie Fay is fast, but hung at the end. Thistle showed speed.

Muey Chica, place, 2 to 5. Jen, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Gussie Fay, show, 2 to 1. Alex, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Br. g. by Faverdale—Amulet.

Post 10 minutes. Start good. The first three were driving hard. Mizpah had to do his best and ran a good race. Eggart tired in the last sixteenth. Debride was carried wide into the stretch and lost ground. He was used a lot, too. Boanerges quit in the last quarter. Cherry Leaf was off very badly. Sailor King ran a poor race. Apple Jack stopped to nothing.

Scratched—Dandy H., 90; Dr. Vaughan, 90; Village Pride, 92; Sim W., 95; Blueaway, 101; Belle of Memphis, 108.

Mizpah, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Debride, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Eggart, show, evens. Boanerges, show, evens.
